PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Map

Important

For European and North American people no visa is required to enter Tunisian territories. For people from Asia they must contact Tunisian consulate to do the administrative procedure (the visa is delivered without any problem in short delays)

Currency

The local currency is the Tunisian Dinar (TND).

Automatic Teller Machines (ATM) are available anywhere

Change

1 TND = 0,5661 EUR, 1 EUR = 1,7666 TND (~1,77)

1 TND = 0,7697 USD, 1 USD = 1,2992 TND (~1,3)

(Qanda 25/08/2007)

Business hours

Banks: from 8.00 AM to 12.30 AM and from 2 PM to 5 PM Monday to Friday in wintertime, from 7 AM to 1 PM in summertime.

Transportation

Road

Bus: The domestic transport company SNTRI and Trans-Tour provide services to the most far away places of Tunisia.

Collective Taxi Rental with a capacity of 5 or 6 persons with luggage, rental leaves only when it is full. In each city, there is a rental station. Cars with blue strips serve nearby places and those with red strips serve long distances.

Rail

The network extends over 2,000 km and covers almost the whole territory, connecting most of the big cities of the North, Tunis, Bizerte, Beja and of the East coast: Sfax, Gabès. Trains are rather slow, but economical and punctual. Various discount cards, from 25 to 50 percent off, can be obtained: the carte jeune, the blue card and the rail museum card.

Air

"Tuninter" ensures domestic flights. This company connects pretty much all the cities with Tunis.

Internet

The Internet suffix is: .tn

Languages spoken

Official language: Arabic. Commercial language: French. 98% of Tunisia speaks Arabic. The other part of the population uses Berber, Italian and French. Arabic, which is spoken by Tunisians in their everyday conversations is a dialectal variety called Tunisian Arabic. English is studied in all secondary schools.
