Lie on the beach. Relax. Watch the children play – or simply join in. In the background, the waves of the Baltic Sea lap gently on the beach, the sun shines from up above, a light breeze refreshes you. This is the Baltic coastal resort Schönberg. This is what it is like to experience the sea.

Your gaze wanders over six kilometres of smooth sand beach, over the jetties to the pier – and far beyond. Beyond to where the fishing boats bob up and down in the light swell. The sea, again and again the sea. It opens our minds, almost imperceptibly, but also insistently.

Which face will it show today? The calm, glassy one? Or the unruly, powerful one? The sea sets the spirit free. And refreshes body and mind. We spend a long time dreaming of holidays. And the holidays in Schönberg make these dreams reality. With family, on the beach, in the water. Enough space for everyone.

Experience nature, enjoy culture – nowhere better than at the Baltic coastal resort Schönberg. And its hinterland, Probstei. Their diversity makes these surroundings unforgettable. Lush fields, undulating hills and the sea. Every day anew, the landscape casts the visitor under its spell. Whether the blossoming rapeseed fields in springtime, the colourful hustle and bustle on the beach in summer or the aromatic cool sea air in autumn and winter: Anyone who wants to enjoy their holidays in a completely new way comes to Schönberg. And takes the family along. Because here everyone's wishes come true.

Baltic Sea Holiday on the Kiel Bay

Welcome to Schönberg, the bathing paradise, where children play in the sand, build castles and moated palaces, and throw around volleyballs and frisbees. Or simply romp about in the water.

On the water the surfers' colourful sails dance over the white crests, always close to the wind. Kite surfing, dinghy sailing, kayaking. Under your own steam or under expert guidance. Here everything is possible.

Whether a holiday of activeness or a holiday from activeness - The choice is yours. Every day anew. There is no place for only one thing: boredom. Because there is always something new to discover and waiting to be tried out. Alone, with family or with new friends.

A couple of metres behind the beach, Schönberg shows its sporty side. Running paths right across Probstei, ranging from the easy to the challenging. Whether nordic walking tours, skating or bicycle tours on the cycle and hiking trail on the embankment, the sea is always in sight. And a cycle path network, leading to the hinterland's most beautiful nooks and crannies.
